even with the perilous journey ahead, ash has no better friend than the new girl who is very different from the girl he remembers. completely devoted to defending the truth and fighting evil, she can handle herself as well as any pokmon, and they have wonderful chemistry in battle. the pair team up to get the jewel of life, and go to the defense of the time gate, their newest super-powered ally. however, they are soon faced with an enemy they couldn't have imagined, a new kind of evil arceus that is far more menacing, powerful, and powerful beyond anything the world has seen. ash and his friends must do the unthinkable: it's time to destroy the past. or is it? the player character (your avatar) receives a life-changing opportunity, and he takes it. arceus, a legendary pokemon from another world, has surfaced in the world of sinnoh, and it brought along with it the "jewel of life" -- a z-crystal. the z-crystal uses the energy from a plate--a relic from arceus's home world that can be used to power devices and also, in this case, augment the powers of the most powerful pokemon ever known. the last of the four legendary "plate pokemon", arceus has made its way to the shores of the hisui, and now its energy is being absorbed into the meteor fragments found on the beach. arceus decides to stay in hisui, and its research and exploration team will relocate to the town of morowind, where a local scientist named michina has discovered and saved a "reverse world" copy of the jewel of life. your mission is to stop arceus from destroying the planet while simultaneously rescuing michina's two children (whose mother, a local wild girl named monica, is the real savior of the planet).
